(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 25.—President Wilson left the train at 8.49 o'clock and drove to the White House. He arrived at 6 o'clock from Boston. Passing through the station with a brief stop he found a cheering early morning crowd of travellers awaiting him. He acknowledged the applause by lifting his hat and smiling. Many scores of gold stars in the crowd stood rigidly at attention as he passed. The President signed the six billion dollar war revenue bill aboard the train last night. The measure carries a rider making the District of Columbia home dry. On reaching his home the President briefly set to work on matters requiring his attention. He was faced with a busy week before his departure about March 6th for the return trip to Paris. This afternoon he was to preside at a cabinet meeting, while tomorrow night he is to attend a dinner with members of the Senate and House Foreign Relations Committees to discuss the proposed constitution of the league of nations. Thursday he will review a parade in honor of the returning District of Columbia soldiers. No other engagements have been made so far as was made known, but many requests to see him on various matters were awaiting him. President Wilson has been absent from Washington nearly three months.

New York, Feb. 25.—The steamship George Washington which landed President Wilson and his party at Boston yesterday, arrived here today with 2301 troops, including detachments for Camp Devens, the 148th Machine gun Battalion, and the 6th Engineers and Engineer Train.

COUNTRY MUST ASSUME HUGE TAX BURDEN TO PAY FOR WAR DEBT

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 25.—It will cost the American people about $1,000,000,000 a year for the next 25 years to pay the war debt, according to estimates of the Treasury. This calculation is made on the assumption that the net war debt with deductions for loans to the allies will be in the neighborhood of $18,000,000,000. Interest on this amount at the rate of 4.14 per cent would be $750,000,000 a year to be raised by taxes. In addition about $17,000,000 would have to be provided every year as a sinking fund to redeem all bonds in 25 years.

WILSON RETURNS CHANGED

President Wilson comes home a changed man. Last December his hair was gray; today it is white. Last December his face was that of a cold intellectualist; today the old light of dominance is gone out of his eyes and in its place is the smiling gleam of a fighter in perfect trim for battle. Formerly, too, his countenance was furrowed by studious cares. Today the furrows are gone and a tranquil face reflects instead the sober weight of the burdens he has had to bear.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Hovars of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

TROTSKY IN BITTER WAR ON POLAND

Warsaw, Feb. 25.—"We must fight the treacherous Poles to the last soldier." This is the slogan which Leon Trotsky, the Russian Bolshevik minister of war, sent from the Perm front to the Smolensk-Minsk headquarters where the troops have been ordered to advance on Bialystok. Trotsky is anxious to give the Poles what he terms a "lesson," as he especially hates Paderewski.

RESCUE 300 GIRLS TRAPPED IN FIRE

Hillsburg, Mass., Feb. 25.—More than 300 girls were rescued by firemen, a score overcome by smoke and a dozen injured in a spectacular fire which yesterday destroyed the building occupied by Dart's Business College, in the heart of the business district. One girl, who fell from the arms of a fireman at a third floor window, was probably fatally injured. Of the 450 students in the school when the fire alarm was sounded shortly after 3 o'clock, only about 10 girls and 50 boys were able to reach the street in safety before smoke and flames cut off the escape of 300 others. Trapped in the second and third floors, the remaining students were taken from windows or jumped into fire nets in the street below.

BRITISH MUST HAVE MORE COAL

London, Jan. 21. (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—More coal must be produced by the United Kingdom if the Great Britain's manufacturers are to successfully compete in the world's markets with those of other nations, declare well-informed economists. They point to an apparent inability of Great Britain to produce enough coal to keep her industries at top speed and at the same time provide for the comfort of the people. It is claimed there is an abundance of coal in the United Kingdom. New mines are being opened and developed in South Wales, the chief source of supply for many years, but the cost of operation increases as the deposits near the surface are exhausted. New fields have been developed elsewhere notably in Yorkshire. Nottingham seems to have an inexhaustible supply of coal but developments there have been hampered by the absence of many miners drafted for the army. Experts have discovered that the amount of coal annually produced by each person employed in the mines has declined from 312 tons in 1890 to 211 tons in 1912. This is contrasted with reports from the United States showing that production of coal there annually has increased from 400 tons per person employed in 1890 to 600 tons in 1912.

This proportionate decrease of British coal production is attributed to two causes—failure to adopt new and improved machinery and systems of operation and demands of miners for more pay and less work.

Confronting a period which the general public has been led to believe Great Britain's most important era of industrial expansion, British industry in demanding cheap coal. Nevertheless, miners in some sections demand a 6-hour working day five days a week while in other sections the men want to be paid for 20 minutes for refreshments, meaning tea.

One writer points out that while the cost of producing coal has doubled in Great Britain since 1880, the cost of production in the United States was less in 1912 than in 1880. England, he declares, must have cheap coal to carry on her highly developed manufacturing industries in competition with other countries who have that advantage.

SUIT SETTLED OUT OF COURT

"Substantial Amount" Is Awarded Plaintiff in Breach of Promise Case.

Nashua, Feb. 25.—The $10,000 suit for breach of promise brought by Mrs. Calista Baum, a clerk in a real estate office against Charles S. Stearns, manager of the J. E. Hills coal business and a widely known resident was settled yesterday. It was to have been the next case to come up in the Hillsborough county superior court and there was much interest in this city in the case which it was stated, had many sensational features. Counsel for the plaintiff, Doyle & Fowler, stated last night, "It is settled and for a good, substantial amount." Every C. E. Boston and Matt Martin of Concord were brought into the case late. There was also a suit by the same parties in which Mrs. Baum is suing Mr. Stearns for an automobile which she claims Stearns gave her and later took away from her. That was also settled in the clean up of the matter.

MR. SCHWAB TALKS ON VISIT ABROAD

Mr. Schwab, who sailed from New York on New Year's day to visit the battlefronts, said he had taken little interest in reconstruction work abroad.

"It seems too early yet to begin, and because of this I see no immediate outlet for American iron and steel," he continued. "Ultimately there will be much business, but not for a long time."

Asserting that besides visiting portions of France and Belgium formerly occupied by the Germans, he had gone to Cologne, Coblenz and Metz. Mr. Schwab added:

"Where I was, it was exceedingly quiet, and the Germans seemed to be willing to be let alone. There was no sign of suffering from lack of food."

"I have come back with 10 times the good opinion I had of our soldiers for the work they did. Everywhere I went I found the American soldiers for them."

and left a good impression, and there was nothing but the greatest praise referring to the changes of unsanitary conditions at the American camp at Brest. Mr. Schwab said:

"I spent three days at Brest and saw all of the camp. I had full opportunity to see the condition of the camp before I embarked."

"I knew nothing of the criticism of it, and was delighted with the camp, created under the conditions that it was. Brest is not a place where a camp can be constructed expeditiously. It is not fifth avenue, of course."

WOULD SINK GERMAN SHIPS

Paris, Feb. 21 (Associated Press)—British and American naval members of the Supreme War Council agree that the surrendered German warships should be sunk in deep water. French and Italian officers do not take this view, and if the experts do not soon reach an agreement, the matter may be taken up directly by the Supreme War Council.

The British navy captured most of the German vessels taken during the war and the British delegates feel they have a greater interest in the determination of the question, and they have the weight of the opinion of American experts with them. There are seventy-four German warships, aggregating half a million tons with an estimated building cost of $200,000,000, at Scapa Flow. They cannot be used profitably in commerce, are too heavily armed and have no cargo space, a fact which has been proved. It has also been demonstrated by American wreckers that naval vessels cannot be broken up at a profit.

The Italian Government claims to have broken up the famous old battleship Duilio at a profit, but no one else has been able to do so well. The torpedos and side armor plates could not be utilized excepting at great expense, and even the boilers and engines would be unsuitable for commercial use.

WILSON TO FIGHT FOR A LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(By Associated Press)
Boston, Feb. 24.—President Wilson will fight at home as he fought abroad for a league of nations. Returning from Europe today he had not been on American soil three hours when he threw down the gauntlet to those who disagree with him on the league of nations, and he declared that it was based upon American ideals and that it was the new spirit, which has been caught by the European nations which with the old spirit had fought the world war. He declared that a treaty of peace based upon the old ideals would be nothing more than a modern scrap of paper.

New England gave the President a rousing welcome and there ever has been a time in which such a great crowd gathered to welcome the returning head of the nation. From Commonwealth pier where he was landed from the George Washington on the cutter Ossipee, to the State House and around to the Copple-Plaza hotel, the crowd packed every available space and gave the president a noisy welcome. The Army, Navy, State guards and police acted as a guard of honor and so well were the arrangements carried out that there was not an unpleasant thing to mar the day.

A handful of Suffragists styling themselves the National Party, stayed to make a demonstration, but they were ordered to move along and upon their refusal they were loaded into patrol wagons and locked up. Later in the day the President received a delegation at the hotel of the Massachusetts Suffragist, a non-militant party and he expressed his sympathy with them and talked at some length.

The President was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson to the hotel and around to Mechanic's hall, and she was given a good part of the evening.

So taken up was the President in the ceremonies that he did not look at the official business that was brought over by Sec. Tumulty and the six billion revenue bill which was looked at by the President when he left the South Station at 4:20 for Washington.

President Wilson talked to nearly 8,000 people in the Mechanic's building this afternoon, after being given a wonderful ovation. He was introduced by Mayor Peters after Governor Coolidge had extended the welcome of the Commonwealth to the President to New England the home of the 26th division.

President Wilson said in part, my heart is glad to see a great body of my fellow citizens again, because in some respects during the recent months I have been very lonely indeed without your comradeship and counsel, and I tried at every step of the work which fell to me to recall what I was sure would be your counsel with regard to great matters which were under consideration.

The proudest thing I have to report to you is that this great country of ours is trusted throughout the world.

I have not come to report the proceedings of the results of the proceedings of the Peace Conference, that would be premature. I can say that I have received very happy impressions from this Conference, the impression that while there are many differences of judgment, while there are some divergences of object, there is nevertheless a common spirit and a common realization of the necessity of setting up new standards of right in the world.

There is no nation in Europe that suspects the motives of the United States.

I have had so many grounds for pride on the other side of the water that I am very thankful that they are not grounds for personal pride, but for national pride. If they were grounds for personal pride I would be the most stuckup man in the world, and it has been an infinite pleasure to me to see these gallant soldiers of ours, of whom the constitution of the United States made me the proud commander. You may be proud of the 26th division, but I commanded the 26th division and see what they did under my direction. Speaking with perfect frankness in the name of the people of the United States, I have uttered as the objects of this great war ideals and nothing but ideals and the war has been won by that spirit, any man who resists the present tides that run in the world will find himself thrown upon a shore so high and barren that it will seem as if he had been separated from his human kind forever.

The Europe that I left the other day was full of something that it had never felt all its heart so full before. It was full of hope. The peoples of Europe believe that we are at the eve of a new age in the world when nations will understand one another, when nations will support one another in every just cause, when nations will unite every moral and every physical strength to see that the right shall prevail.

I do not mean any disrespect to any other great people when I say that America is the hope of the world, and if she does not justify that hope the results are unthinkable. Men will be thrown back upon the bitterness of disappointment not only, but the bitterness of despair. All nations will be set up as hostile camps again, the men at the Peace Conference will go home with their heads upon their breasts, knowing that they have failed for they were bidden not to come home from there until they did something more than sign a treaty of Peace.

Any man who thinks that America will take part in giving the world any such rebuff and disappointment as that does not know America.

I invite him to test the sentiments of the nation. We set this nation up to make men free and we did not confine our conception and purpose to America, and now we will make men free.

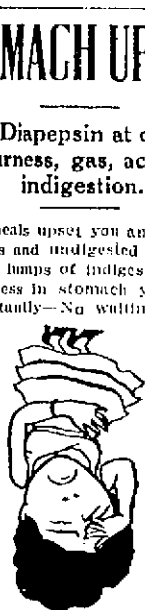

The arrangements of the present Peace cannot stand generation unless they are guaranteed by the united forces of the civilized world. I have no more doubt of the verdict of America in this matter than I have doubt of the blood that is in me. The nations of the world have set their heads now to do a great thing, and they are not going to shirk their purpose. And when I speak of the nations of the world I do not speak of the world.

I speak of the peoples who constitute the nations of the world. They are in the saddle and they are going to see to it that if their present governments do not do their will some other governments shall. And the secret is out and the present governments know it.

Probing deep in my heart and trying to see the things that are right without regard to the things that may be debated as expedient, I feel that I am interested in the purpose and the thought of America, and in Justice America I find I have joined the great majority of my fellow men throughout the world.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain, Bitter-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing bones, neck and back, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are without doubt thousands of men and women who really feel their excessive thinness. Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in ordinary foods. Phosphate enters them in building that all supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as "bitter-phosphate," which is inexpensive and is sold by D. W. Adams in Portsmouth and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphate food element, bitter-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, and you become bright, and full of life and glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION.—Although bitter-phosphate is unexcelled for relieving nervousness, it should not, under any circumstances, be taken by persons who do not desire to put on flesh.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

Reasonable and Right.

In these days of loud and almost constant demands for increased wages and shorter hours, some of which seem to approach painfully near to unreasonableness, it is a relief to hear of one to which it would seem there could be no sound objection.

This does not come from the workers concerned, for they are in a position to have nothing to say about their working conditions and pay. They are inmates of Massachusetts prisons, and their families receive 50 cents a day when they work. Now Sanford Bates, penal commissioner of the city of Boston, asks the Legislative Committee on the Judiciary to act favorably on a measure providing that the families of prison inmates be paid one dollar a day when the men work.

This bill was introduced on petition of Mayor Peters of Boston and is entitled to respectful consideration. In the first place, the increase asked is far from extravagant, and, in the second place, it would to some extent relieve the courts from the feeling of reluctance which they experience in many cases when dealing with convicts whose families they know will suffer if the men are sent away. There is no doubt that many men who ought to go to jail are placed on probation or under suspended sentences because of the knowledge that their families need their services and that the suffering of the innocent will be greater than that of the guilty if the law is carried out as it should be.

It is a bad thing to have convicts released because of such considerations. A man convicted of violation of the law should be made to pay the penalty, and reasonable provision should be made for the care of his family in cases where this is necessary. To this end the prisoner should be made to work, and what he earns over and above the cost of his own support should go to those dependent upon him.

In the past there has been objection to the working of prisoners as they ought to be worked, on the ground that their work comes into competition with free labor, thus constituting an injustice to the men who keep out of jail. But, in the large sense, this is not good reasoning. Prisoners and their families must live, and in so far as they fail to support themselves the public must bear the burden. It is far better that imprisoned men should be made to work, for under proper management they can do much toward supporting themselves and their dependents, in addition to being much better off when busy than they would be in idleness.

The bill referred to is in the line of fairness and equity. It is right that prison inmates should have suitable employment and that the surplus of their earnings should go toward the support of their families. And in these times one dollar a day would seem to be none too much to allow for a good day's work on the part of an able-bodied man behind the bars.

A New York hotel has been equipped with a New England dining room in which real Boston baked beans and other favorite New England dishes will be served, and the innovation is said to be popular. And how Boston must regret that in a short time she will be unable to reciprocate by filling up bars at which New York drinks can be served.

New York workingmen are still talking about striking on July 1, if they cannot have their beer. There is no telling what may happen between now and that time, but the present indications are that they will have a chance to strike or change their minds. The drought is headed this way, and it doesn't look now as if it would be sidetracked.

Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, declined to become a candidate for governor of New Jersey, saying he considers it his duty to stay in Washington, where he can be of service to the President. Possibly, also, he is mindful of the homely old saying, "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush."

The Poles are said to be using United States election methods. This is all right as a general proposition, but they will do well not to adopt them all. There are some election methods in the United States that it will be better to leave out.

When Nat Goodwin, the actor, died recently, his estate was reported to aggregate about $6,000, and now it is said to be in the neighborhood of $300,000. Quite a "posthumous increment."

The government is preparing to lop off some of its war agencies, and it is high time that it should. The people have been "taken care of" about long enough.

The assassination stage in the great world drama has arrived.

FOYE'S

DRYDEN WINS IN A FAST MATCH

Bill Dryden and Jean Westergaard gave us pretty an exhibition of what two good men can do in a wrestling match at Freeman's hall Monday evening as has been seen here this winter. It was a clean scientific match with both men working at top speed.

Westergaard who recently went 21-35 minutes with Pinky Garden for a draw, is a great wrestler, he is fast and has a good knowledge of the game and can stand hard usage. He is aggressive and willing to take his medicine like a good sport.

There was not as large an audience as is usual for Westergaard while he was here seven years ago, but he was wrestled much in the east and is little known. The general impression however is that he can get away with any of the best men that have shown in this city.

Dryden won both falls, the first in 35 minutes with a head scissor and a hammer lock, a rare combination, but one of the most effective seen here for some time.

The second went to Dryden in 19 minutes of hard and fast work with a hammer lock and a body scissor. Dryden had a scissor working last night that was excellent.

BIG VALUE IN POTATOES

New Hampshire College, Durham, N. H., Feb. 21.—Potatoes to the value of $5,674.89 were raised by members of the New Hampshire boys' and girls' clubs, according to definite reports made to the New Hampshire college extension service. It was announced today. The total amount raised was undoubtedly much larger than this, since many boys enrolled in the project did not send in reports; but from the known results it is possible to say that about 450 bushels were dug last fall by club boys at an average profit per bushel of $1.61.

Stanleigh Burleigh of Sanbornton is the state champion in the club potato contest with a record of 43.2 bushels from 1934 square feet of land. This is equivalent to 421 bushels per acre; a yield that the best farmer in the state would not be ashamed of. Another boy, Gordon Savage of Jefferson, planted and tended half an acre, one of the largest plots reported by any club member. The state winners in the contest ranked as follows after Burleigh: Fred Dunsier, Merrimack; Donald LaCass, Elm; Lester Chikler, Chesterfield; Ralph Crafts, Stratham; Lawrence Scammon, Stratham; Stuart McDonald, Newfields; Gordon Savage, Jefferson; Charles Dube, Epping; John Weeks, Gilmanston.

MR. BROWN WILL ACCEPT CALL FOR GOVERNOR

Manchester, Feb. 23.—Albert C. Brown, chairman of the New Hampshire tax commission since its organization eight years ago, replied today to the Republican City Committee of Manchester, which had unanimously petitioned him to become a candidate for governor at the next election, as follows:

"If, as the time for the election approaches, it remains the deliberate and calculated judgment of those active in Republican circles that I should be the candidate for governor—if it is thought that I can thus contribute most to the success of the wise measures to which we may then be committed in state and nation—I will file the declaration of candidacy."

PUPILS PARADE IN DRIVE FOR NEW SCHOOL PLAYGROUND

The pupils of the Farragut school held an impromptu parade this noon in the downtown district in the interest of the playground which this school badly needs, and to advertise the mass meeting of Wednesday night.

Probably there is not a school anywhere the size of the Farragut school that has so small a space for a playground and each year the need of a place for the 400 pupils of this school is more and more apparent.

There were 225 children in the march, which was headed by several youthful drummers. The American flag was conspicuous in the parade and many posters and banners made and carried by the pupils attracted much attention. Some of the banners were lettered as follows:

"Make the Farragut school safe for the children."

"We need a playground."

"Fair play for the Farragut."

"We want to come to school all day."

"Come to the mass meeting on Wednesday evening."

"Give the coming citizens a chance."

The march was through Vaughan street, Congress to Market, to How and Pleasant, State, Middle, Congress, High and to the school building. A call was made at the mayor's office, but he was out of town.

The parade attracted no little attention, although on account of the bad walking the juvenile marchers were obliged to parade on the sidewalks.

Now that the children have appealed to the public by the parade and banners of today no doubt it will aid in the drive for a better and bigger playground.

FATHER RECEIVES FRENCH DECORATION AWARDED DEAD SON

That Second Lieut. Ralph T. Neal, of Mattapan, Mass., son of John C. Neal, a native of New Castle, who was killed in action at Blanc Mont Ridge, Oct. 3, did his part nobly on the battlefield, was well proven to his folks at home when recently his father received in his son's memory the Croix de Guerre with palms, and the letter telling him that his son had been cited for bravery and had been given the honor.

The translation of the citation is as follows:

"Second Lieut. Ralph T. Neal, 9th Infantry. He gave proof of untiring energy in carrying out missions of liaison and of reconnaissance, under violent bombardment, rendering important service to his company. He was killed while advancing near Meusek Farm."

Lieut. Neal, who was well known in New Castle, where he passed his summers, was a graduate of Amherst College and volunteered for service to his country. He was sent to an officers' training school at Camp Upton, N. Y., and last May was sent overseas as corporal of H Co., 308th regiment. He later was made sergeant and in July received his commission as a lieutenant and was assigned to K Company, 3th Infantry. He was a young man of exemplary habits and loyal to duty and full like a true soldier.

CHRIST CHURCH "WELCOME HOME" BANQUET A SUCCESS

Medals Awarded Returned Boys, Members of the Church.

An interesting event occurred in Christ Church parish house Monday evening when the Portsmouth boys who had been released from duty who did service in the war and whose names are on the Honor Roll of Christ Church were given a banquet.

The large hall was decorated with bunting and flags and the tables were also trimmed in correspond. A fine menu was served, including roast beef, mashed potato, squash, boiled onions, pickles, rolls, apple pie, cheese and coffee.

The banquet was marked by sociability and the returning boys were warmly welcomed.

At 7:30 p. m. a beautiful and impressive service was held in Christ church, and these young men were each given a sterling silver medal suitably engraved.

PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE TIRED OF WAITING

The Public Health Service which has done such good work here since the United States Health Zone was established here, are about through with this city and they are rapidly getting ready to leave. Dr. Treble who is in charge has had his orders for some time, but the department have been holding the service here so that they could assist in the reorganization of the Health Board, but the fact that the city council has not held but one business meeting since they took office, January first, has held up this matter. The report of the Board of Health headed by Dr. J. H. Neal has been filed with the Council, but there has not been a meeting at which it could be brought up.

The various officers attached to the service have all been ordered away, and they will have everything cleaned and leave by Thursday of this week. What office equipment they have purchased they have been ordered to turn over to the Red Cross, but there will be a fairly good equipped laboratory and a good set of offices for the Health Board.

All of the records of the house to house inspection and other valuable data they have left but it will be wasted material unless a modern method of health supervision is established. This can not be done until the Council meets, and there seems to be no indication of a meeting.

FARRAGUT PUPILS AND PLAY GROUND

The pupils of the Farragut school, are still hoping to have a larger playground as the present one is so small it can hardly be called such. The pupils have been writing letters in school on the need of the playground and two follow, these being uncorrected, and given just as the children send them in. The writer of one, Albert Brader, could not speak a word of English five years ago when he entered the school.

Letter No. 1.
New Playground needed by Farragut School.

The Farragut School playground is very small. The children have to be careful not to run to fast because the playground is so small that many accidents may happen.

The Farragut School ranks next to the High School in membership but has the smallest playground in the city. The building has about four hundred pupils although it has the smallest playground in the city.

The school wants a good big playground so there will be no accidents among the children and we could keep Admiral Farragut's name in good order.

The best way for the parents of the children of the Farragut School to prevent injuries on the street-playgrounds is to help to move some of the houses away from the school so as to have a good playground.

Respectfully Submitted,

Albert Brader.

Letter No. 2.
Farragut Playground Badly Needed.

The Farragut School of Portsmouth is in a bad need for a playground.

The Parent-Teachers Association has tried in vain but have not succeeded.

Mr. Shotton Superintendent of Schools in Portsmouth is trying his best to secure one for us.

The school children themselves are now to try.

They want a large playground so as to avoid accidents.

The school contains nearly four hundred children.

Why do we need a playground?

Because we have only the street to play in.

If your child was going to a school which was over-crowded what would you do?

Suppose your child was seriously injured by accident?

A leg broken or an arm broken or ribs broken?

Suppose your child was instantly killed by a train or truck?

These things are liable to happen.

EX-KAISER CONFERS WITH BERLIN CHIEF

Amerongen, Holland, Feb. 24.—Dr. J. Kelege, one of the chief department chiefs of the German Foreign Office, left for Berlin yesterday after a visit of three days in Amsterdam. During Saturday and Sunday he conferred with ex-Kaiser Wilhelm. Sunday night Dr. Kelege had a conference with Herr von Gontard, the former emperor's private secretary, and was with him far into the night. The nature of the conference at Amerongen castle is kept absolutely secret. It is remarked, however, that the recent activity at the castle coincides with the presence at The Hague of Dr. von Kuehlmann, the former German Foreign Minister, who is said to be showing the greatest zeal.

The Duchess of Croi, who was Miss Nancy Lelshman, an American girl, has been staying for several days at the castle of Zuylenstein, a short distance from Amerongen. There is no confirmation of the report that she called on the former emperor.

Living these, however, Miss George Hill, Brookline; Miss Ruth Small, Newton Highlands; Miss Josephine Collins, Framingham; Miss Katherine G. Moore, Brookline; Miss Betty Upton, Portland, Ore.

The arrest was made by Captain Richard Fitzgerald and Lieutenant McDermott of the Jay street station. Shortly after ten o'clock the suffragists marched from their headquarters and took up stations immediately in front of the reviewing stand. Captain Fitzgerald approached and told them that no one was to be allowed to stand there, and ordered them to move. They ignored his command.

Captain Fitzgerald then sent one of his men to the Suffrage headquarters and asked that whoever was in charge should come to the scene of the trouble. Miss Alice Paul of New Jersey, national chairman of the National Woman's Party, who is here from Washington for the express purpose of conducting today's demonstration, walked to the place and was requested to order the pickets to leave.

Women Courted Arrest

She replied that, as the women had gone there with the intention of making just such a demonstration it would be fully for them to leave when threatened by arrest. Captain Fitzgerald then told the women that unless they moved away they would be arrested, and when the time limit of seven minutes had expired he and Lieutenant McDermott, with a squad of patrolmen, took the women into custody. He called two patrol wagons that were stationed near.

When the wagons arrived, twenty-one of the party signified their willingness to enter, but Miss Betty Gram of Portland, Ore., said she would not go unless compelled to. Captain Fitzgerald then gave her the formal notice required by the city ordinance, stating that unless she moved within the seven minutes, he would have to take her forcibly. At the end of ten minutes' time, one of the wagons returned, and again the captain told Miss Gram that, unless she moved at once, he would put her in the wagon. She ignored him completely, and calling Lieutenant McDermott of Station 3, the captain directed him to take Miss Gram by one arm, while he took the other. The girl struggled, and both men lifted her by the arms and forced her into the wagon. She slid down the seat to the rear end, where she sat waving at the Suffragists grouped on the balcony in front of their headquarters, and they in turn waved their banners wildly as she was carried away to the station.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headache, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, unamiable-looking souls with pusy muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms poisonous-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become rest cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

POLICE MAKE SHORT WORK OF SUFFRAGISTS

Boston, Feb. 24.—The National Woman's Party learned this morning what Boston police meant by a statement made a few days ago, about heckling the President, to the effect that the necessary steps would be taken to prevent disorder.

Twenty-two of them who had marched from the State headquarters of the organization at 9 Beacon street to a position in front of the State House, where they forced their way past armed guard of sailors stationed there, were arrested for violating a city ordinance by jostling after being warned. Two others were to have been in the party, but were unable to force their way through the crowds on the streets in time to march with the rest. Still another, Miss Pamela Warren of New Hampshire, was to have borne a banner but, instead went out in charge of the demonstrator party and was not arrested. All those taken refused bail and, it is said, will plead their own cases when arraigned in the Municipal Court tomorrow.

List of Those Arrested

The complete list of suffragists arrested was as follows: Mrs. H. S. Turner, Allston; Mrs. H. E. Russian, Detroit; Miss Eleanor Calman, Methuen; Miss Mary Foley, Boston; Miss Dorothy Pratt, Roxbury; Mrs. Frank Page, Boston; Miss L. J. C. Daniels, Vermont; Miss Harry Potter, Boston; Miss Nettie Connolly, Newton; Miss Rose Lewis, New York city; Miss George Rowan, Belmont; Miss Frances Fowler, Brookline; Mrs. Jessica Henderson, Weymouth; Mrs. William Henderson, daughter, also of Weymouth; Mrs. J.

LEWISTON NOT OVER FRIENDLY

It is all well enough to make a virtue of a necessity and the folks will stand for it. For instance it is all right to build a bridge between Portsmouth and Kittery and call it a soldier's monument. We might as well build a sewer-system in Saco and call it a memorial to the returning soldiers—Lewiston Journal.

Tot, tot! And likewise both! and tot!—Hiddeford Journal.

We are sorry our brother at Lewiston is inclined to show his lack of patriotism. We doubt if the average citizen of Lewiston is in sympathy with his recommendation.

"TIZ" FOR SORE, TIRED FEET—AH!

"Tiz" is grand for aching, swollen, tender, calloused feet or corns.

And what relief. So more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, aching, tender, twenty feet. No more corns in corns, callouses, bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the nail you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz." "Tiz" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "Tiz" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never be hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns, callouses or bunions.

Get a 25-cent box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. Just once try "Tiz." Get a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents. Think of it.

DID GREAT DAMAGE TO COTTAGES

Charles Boothby age 19 of Kittery and Edward Pelquin age 14 also of Kittery were arraigned before Judge Shaw in the Kittery Court on Monday evening charged with breaking and entering the home of L. Langdon Ward at Kittery and the larceny of a revolver.

The case was continued over until the owners of the other cottages which were broken into can be notified. Boothby was held in $800 bonds Deputy Sheriff.

It appears that the boys simply backed their way into the cottages, they took an axe and smashed the panels and in some cases destroyed the door. They also wantonly broke china and other things they found in the houses and in addition took away a lot of loot which has been recovered.

EARLY MORNING
FIRE DISCOVERED
IN TIMEA fire in the kitchen of the Olympia cave in Badger's block on Daniel St., at 2:30 this morning, was discovered in time to prevent a serious fire.Officer Philbrick noticed the smoke coming from over the door of the cave and he called the Auto Chemical, and then aroused the people living in the upper part of the block.The fire was however confined to the kitchen of the cave and was extinguished without much loss. The smokeworked up through the block but not enough to cause much damage. A few minutes more and the fire would have been a serious one.WHERE ARE WE DRIFTING?Six empty canteens with bottles were picked up in the doorway of Exchange block this morning. The bottles had contained 90 and 92 per cent alcohol.
It must have been a "horrible dose"
as it was taken, but they say it produces the real kick. Now is it really a step in favor of temperance to cut out 6 per cent beer? How many people are there who consider just what step is being taken?

SHOE MERCHANT CHARGED WITH ARSONMr. and Mrs. Moses Shransky Accused of Alleged Attempt to Burn Their Store on Market StreetMr. and Mrs. Moses Shransky of Market street, owners of a shoe and clothing store on the corner of Market and Hanover streets, were arrested on Monday night charged with a serious crime. Mrs. Shransky was charged with arson and her husband with being an accessory before the fact.
The warrants were issued by County Solicitor W. H. Sleeper and they are the result of a fire that was dis-covered in the store of the Shransky on Market Street at one o'clock in the morning on Feb. 11. The police at that time reported the fire as being suspicious and Chief Woods has been making an investigation for some time with the County Solicitor.As it is not a billable offense both were locked up for the night and will be arraigned at 2 o'clock this afternoon.PROMINENT WOMEN
ENTERTAINEDA meeting which was highly interesting and full of interest was held by the Portsmouth Equal Suffrage association Monday at its clubhouse, the occasion being a luncheon attended by about 60 women.Among the guests were Dr. Inez Nason of Dover, Mrs. Mary L. Wood of Portsmouth, Miss Martha Khabail of Portsmouth, Mrs. Mary Dale Hahard of Laconia and Mrs. Olive Hand
Clarke, Mrs. Frank Knox and Miss Hazel Porter of Manchester, members of the State Suffrage association.
A delegation from the association was present including Mrs. Charles Drake, chairman; Miss Spill, transporter; Mrs. Barry, secretary; and Mrs.
Goodwin Perkins, vice chairman.The speakers after the luncheon were Mrs. C. K. Simmers of Durham, Mrs. Knox, Miss Kimball and Mrs.
Wood.
A very enthusiastic feeling was manifested and there was every evidence of increased suffrage activity.
This was one of the notable features of the meeting. It was also made evident that the defeat of the suffrage amendment in the national Senate was held at the door of the Republicans, as controlled by a small number of New England Senators.

ATLANTIC NEWS

One of the letters up that sides in every morning from New Yorkport had a most unhappy ten minutes this morning.Arriving at the station after a record half mile run from his home just as the train was pulling out he made a vain search for his ticket. He made many requests for the fifty-five cents necessary to pay his fare, but none of his friends had the money. Finally after a long search a friend came along and paid the wonderful young man's fare.The new happy shipowner settled down for a smoke. Picking his tobacco can from his pocket he found his railroad ticket wedged into the cover of the can.He must pay this ticket for his fare but has found his monthly ticket.And he didn't know whether he was unlucky in losing the ticket or lucky in finding it.

Anyway, it's a tough life, mates.

ROCKINGHAM A. C.

The matchmaker of the Rockingham

Eddie Flynn for the main bout of the show to be held Monday, March 18.
Brennan, who is stationed at the yard, has a big following. He is a clean, satisfactory boxer and with another clean boy like popular Eddie Flynn, the fans will see a bout two from that rough neck stuff which only hurts the game. The club is after some boy to Something Every Automobile

ASSAULTED
BY NEGROMrs. Vivian Haley was badly cut by a negro named C. H. Pondexter on Hanover street shortly after nine o'clock Monday night, after the negro had attempted to assault her.Mrs. Haley was walking down Hanover street to Market street and as it was slippery on the side walk she walked in the middle of the street.
When almost down to Market street the negro was walking back of her suddenly grabbed her and pushed her back against the building. He pulled out a razor and said that he had a good sharp razor there and he would cut her throat.Mrs. Haley screamed and fought him and in the struggle she was badly cut on the right hand. Pondexter tore himself loose and ran, but he was captured shortly after by Officer Phil-brick who heard the woman's screams.
At the police station Dr. Neal took several stitches in the hand of the woman and she was sent home. She stated to the police that she had never seen him before and did not suspect that he was following her until she was grabbed from behind.Pondexter is 33 years of age and employed at one of the ship yards and came here from the south. He offered no explanation for his assault.At today's court Pondexter was held for the May term of superior court without bail.VOTE ON TELEPHONE STRIKE WEDNESDAYThe officers of the New England Joint Council of Telephone Workers were forced to use considerable persuasion at the meeting in the Quincy House Sunday afternoon to prevent the young women delegates representing the various affiliated operators' locals from voting to declare a strike to take effect immediately after the tabulating of strike ballots is finished next Friday night.
